

THE RESERVE AT LAKE KEOWEE

Pickens County, South Carolina

The Reserve is a 3,200-acre master planned residential golf community located in Pickens County, South Carolina along the shores of Lake Keowee. Newkirk Environmental, Inc. performed various environmental services for The Reserve at Lake Keowee.

Services included:

- ❑ Conducted wetland delineation and U.S. Army Corps of Engineers verification on 3,200-acres;
- ❑ Conducted protected species survey for threatened and endangered species and habitat analysis;
- ❑ Applied for and received S. C. Department of Health and Environmental Control (SCDHEC) 401 Water Quality Certification and U.S. Army Corps of Engineers Individual Permit to construct a 36-hole golf course, fifty miles of roads and utilities;
- ❑ Applied for and received SCDHEC Navigable Waters Permit for construction and operation of water intake irrigation structure in Lake Keowee;
- ❑ Applied for and received Duke Power Lake Management Permit and Lease for operation of an irrigation facility in Lake Keowee.